Animation in Asia and the Pacific John A. Lent,2001 Animation has had a global renaissance during the 1990s and nowhere is this more evident than in Asia With the exception of China and Japan most Asian nations are relatively new to this art form Over the last decade countries such as Taiwan South Korea the Philippines and Thailand as well as China have acted as major offshore production plants for North American and European studios One of the spurs for this increase in activity has been the global growth of terrestrial cable satellite and video systems all demanding large menus of programming including animation A second spur has been the exceptional popularity that Japanese anim has enjoyed across Asia Europe and the United States Despite these developments there has not been corresponding growth of a serious literature covering industrial and aesthetic issues about Asian animation and the small amount of work that has been produced has not been published in English Animation in Asia and the Pacific provides the first continent wide analysis delving into issues of production distribution exhibition aesthetics and regulation in this burgeoning field Animation in Asia and the Pacific also offers vignettes of the fascinating experiences of a group of animation pioneers The historical and contemporary perspectives derive from interviews textual analysis archival research and participation observation data

Crimes of the Powerful Dawn

Rothe,David Kauzlarich,2016-03-31 As politicians and the media perpetuate the stereotype of the common criminal crimes committed by the powerful remain for the most part invisible or are reframed as a bad decision or a rare mistake This is a topic that remains marginalized within the field of criminology and criminal justice yet crimes of the powerful cause more harm perpetuate more inequalities and result in more victimization than street crimes Crimes of the Powerful An introduction is the first textbook to bring together and show the symbiotic relationships between the related fields of state crime white collar crime corporate crime financial crime organized crime and environmental crime Dawn L Rothe and David Kauzlarich introduce the many types of crimes methodological issues associated with research theoretical relevance and issues surrounding regulations and social controls for crimes of the powerful Themes covered include media culture and the Hollywoodization of crimes of the powerful theoretical understanding and the study of the crimes of the powerful a typology of crimes of the powerful with examples and case studies victims of the crimes of the powerful the regulation and resistance of elite crime An ideal introductory text for both undergraduate and postgraduate students taking modules on the crimes of the powerful white collar crime state crime and green criminology this text includes chapter summaries activities and discussion questions and lists of additional resources including films websites and additional readings
