The Gate of Aesir Series – My Life is A Story and A Wager Joseph Santiago, 2015-09-09 In a game where anything goes, my life is defined by how I test others. I am a player in the Great Game and the only thing that is keeping me alive is having a life that is interesting and entertaining. For centuries the Architects have moved people like puppets, betting on their lives and their actions. They have encouraged players to become monsters with no law constraining us but their own. I became one of those monsters to change all of that. This mostly true story will have you doubting what you know and questioning if someone has already been pulling your strings. Even the paranoid are right sometimes.
