Conde, Carlos Phillips Olmedo

Una Verdad Delicada A Delicate Truth Spanish Edition:

Cervantes' Persiles and the Travails of Romance Marina S. Brownlee, 2019-08-22 This collection of original essays presents new ways of looking at Cervantes final novel Persiles a work that engages with geopolitical models of race ethnicity nation and religion takes its inspiration from the highly influential Ethiopian Story the Aithiopika of Heliodorus With particular relevance to the period the Persiles questions the issue of cultural pluralism in the Spanish empire and emphasizes the need to rethink the radically altered category of lo b rbaro the barbarian which included not only the Jew the Muslim and the Gypsy but also the criollo the mestizo and the indiano a new multiracial and multiethnic reality that posed a profound challenge to early modern Spain The contributors offer a range of perspectives in spatial theory psychology and subjectivity visual culture and literary theory

Women Singing in the Snow Tey Diana Rebolledo, 1995 This first book length analysis of the Chicana literary tradition traces the development of Chicana literature from 1848 to the present Rebolledo discusses major writers works important myths and archetypes and key theoretical issues she then shows the ways in which Chicana writers explore subjectivity and identity in their writing the struggle Chicana writers have faced in finding their voices and developing a strong and ethnically tagged language and the ways they have broken taboos by transgressing into traditionally male spaces

Querido Doctorcito Frida Kahlo, Leo Eloesser, Teresa del Conde, Carlos Phillips Olmedo, 2007 The main body of the book is the facsimile and transcription of the collection of the manuscript and typed letters and telegraphs mailed between artist Frida Kahlo and doctor Leo Eloesser and enriched with contributions written by experts in art and medicine such as Carlos Monsivais Teresa del Conde Juan Pascoe and others The group of letters corresponds to 3 phases covering from 1936 to 1951 The first part reflects a courteous friendship and a paternal relationship of total confidence and where she consults him for all medical and personal matters The second part of the correspondence airs her political feelings about the Spanish Civil War the refugees arriving in Mexico and Diego Rivera s health The third part of the correspondence marks an important shift when the 2 protagonists adopt a more informal tone and where Kahlo confides her several love affairs and medical problems and although during this period she painted extensively she does not mention it as she didn t believe in her own success stamped These letters suggest that there was more than just a caring friendship between them while also represent the heartbreaking confessions by Kahlo after she lost the baby she was expecting with her husband Diego Rivera
