Theology of Ministry Eduardus A. J. G. Van der Borgh, E. a. J. G. Van Derborgh,2007 Theology of ministry has always been a controversial issue in the relation between churches especially with its juridical approach that concentrated on authority In recent decades the secularization and individualization in the Western world have intensified the challenge to reformulate the mission of the church and its ministries Building on the Reformed theology of the 16th century Zwingli Calvin and confessions and on the results of the ecumenical convergence on ministry BEM in the 20th century this study presents building blocks for a renewed theology of ministry in the 21st century

The Primacy of the Bishop of Rome and the Ecumenical Dialogue Adriano Garuti, 2004 The mixed results of the ecumenical dialogue since the Second Vatican Council have made it clear that the primacy of the Bishop of Rome remains the single most serious obstacle on the path of ecumenism In his landmark 1995 encyclical Ut unum sint Pope John Paul II reiterated the constant teaching that the Catholic Church has preserved the ministry of the Successor of the Apostle Peter the Bishop of Rome He also invited leaders and theologians of other Christian communities to engage in a patient and fraternal dialogue on this subject to find a way of exercising the primacy which while in no way renouncing what is essential to its mission is nonetheless open to a new situation This book explores in depth the discussion of papal primacy in the Catholic Orthodox Catholic Lutheran and Catholic Anglican dialogues along with an appendix on the concept of Sister Churches Each chapter describes how the primacy is viewed in the respective churches or ecclesial communities then it analyzes the documents of the official ecumenical dialogue and realistically evaluates the results achieved thus far Guide for Celebrating Christian Initiation with Adults Victoria M. Spirit Flowing Like Water Nausikaa Haupt, Olle Kristenson, Michael Nausner, Gregory Ryan, 2025-06-19 What if churches focused less on wanting other Christian traditions to become more like theirs and more on exploring what they might learn from them Might this not only help churches to deepen faith mission and service but also revitalize the ecumenical landscape with new possibilities This is the provocative and inspiring vision presented by Receptive Ecumenism a movement which has crossed denominations and continents engaging church leaders ecumenists scholars and Christians in their everyday lives Spirit Flowing Like Water presents the latest conversations in this field It not only engages leading scholars and practitioners of Receptive Ecumenism between churches but also explores the possibility of learning from difference within a church community Internal Receptive Ecumenism and adapting the approach to a wider ecumenism beyond the visible church Church leaders ecumenists and theologians from five continents have contributed chapters on transforming ecumenism practicing mission in context and broadening the horizon They write not only for those already engaged in ecumenical work but with an invitation to all communities leaders and individuals to take a fresh look at what walking together in Christ means in our polarized world

Progress in Unity? Martien E. Brinkman, 1995 As an expert and lively tour guide Brinkman takes the reader through the breathtaking landscape of a half century of ecumenical dialogue The author makes an invaluable contribution by his deft selection of documents his thought provoking commentary on key issues and his keen discernment of the missionary challenge that faces the church of Christ as it travels on the road to greater visible unity the work is equally suitable for personal reading and for the college or seminary classroom A veritable feast for ecumenical and evangelical readers This work is a refreshing stimulus to reflection prayer and action for the unity and mission of the church in a troubled world George Vandervelde President of the North American Academy of Ecumenists Professor of Systematic Theology Institute for Christian Studies Toronto Canada One thing becomes clear from Martien Brinkman's book those who claim that the ecumenical movement went into a deadlock have not studied its results Most people suffer from a lack of memory when it comes to the history of ecumenical theology during the past 70 years This book provides medicine for ecumenical amnesia It deals especially with the Faith and Order Movement and Commission within the World Council of Churches There flows from Brinkman s book a whole new stream of an ecumenical theological tradition which is scarcely known even to academic theologians This tradition treats of such matters as Scripture and Tradition Faith and Sacraments Church World and Kingdom of God This book provides an excellent overview and in depth evaluation of the major currents in this developing ecumenical tradition It will certainly promote its reception in the churches and its study in the academy At the same time however it keeps an eye open for the difficulties and tensions of the dialogue between ecumenical and evangelical Christians and between the theological methods of the North and the South It will be difficult to find any more reliable study guide to the results of the multilateral ecumenical dialogues of the twentieth century Anton Houtepen Professor of Ecumenism University of Utrecht The Netherlands This book conceived as a study guide to the Faith and Order Movement does precisely what it sets out to do and does it well It brings the reader into close contact with the documents and studies published by this influential section of the World Council of Churches Such an inventory comes at the right time just as the Commission on Faith and Order takes stock after the World Conference of Santiago and under the guidance of a new director It is no secret that Faith and Order has been invited to reflect upon its future orientation The well documented and orderly survey which Prof Brinkman offers us here will certainly be of help in such a process Jos Vercruyssen S J Professor of Church History and Ecumenism Pontifical Gregorian University Rome

Catholics and Evangelicals for the Common Good Ronald J. Sider, Dr. John Borelli, 2018-11-07 For centuries evangelical Protestants and Catholics have hurled harsh epithets at each other But that has changed dramatically in the last forty years In 1960 many prominent evangelicals opposed John Kennedy for president because he was a Catholic Today Catholics and evangelicals work together on many issues of public policy This book records one important process in this transformation In 2004 the board of The National Association of Evangelicals NAE the largest representative body of evangelicals in the US unanimously approved For the Health of the Nation as the official public policy document for its public policy efforts representing 30 million evangelicals When scholars read this new ground breaking document they quickly realized there was widespread agreement between the NAE s official public policy document and the official public policy positions of American Catholics The result was a series of annual meetings held at Georgetown University and Eastern University that brought together prominent Catholic and Evangelical scholars and public policy specialists to explore the extent of the common ground This book reports on that dialogue and its contribution to the increasing Catholic evangelical cooperation
