Nineteenth Century Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, 1890-1899: pt. 2. E-K Helen Grant Cushing, Adah Vivian Morris, Morris, Adah Vivian, Cushing, Helen Grant, 1944 Studies in the Book of Psalms William Swan Plumer, 1866 The Psalms are wonderful They have been read repeated chanted sung studied wept over rejoiced in expounded loved and praised by God's people for thousands of years The most ancient of these productions is now 1866 three thousand three hundred and twenty six years old The least ancient of them is two thousand four hundred and fifty three years old The difference in date between the most ancient and the most modern of them is eight hundred and seventy three years They were all written in Asia so that we in this Western world can have no national pride respecting them Yet pious people here and all over the earth have found and can find no compositions more suitable for delineating their devout emotions and for expressing their pious sensibilities than those of inspired Psalmists If to any man these songs are unsavory the reason is found in the blindness and depravity of the human heart Hengstenberg The Psalms are expressions of holy feeling which can be understood by those only who have become alive to such feeling Other things being equal he who has the most heavenly mind will be the most successful student of the Psalms Introduction Nineteenth Century Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, 1890-1899: pt. 1. A-D Helen Grant Cushing, Adah Vivian Morris, 1944 Guide to Manuscripts, Special Collections and Other Research Resources for Caribbean Studies at the University of the West Indies, St. Augustine, Campus Libraries Margaret Deanne Rouse-Jones, 2003 Overzicht van de speciale collecties en andere bronnen voor onderzoek aanwezig in de hoofbibliotheek van de University of the West Indies te Trinidad St Augustine Campus Nineteenth Century Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, 1890-1899 Helen Grant Cushing, 1944 Trinidad Yoruba Maureen Warner-Lewis, 2009-05-10 A deeply informed Afrocentric view of language and cultural retention under slavery Maureen Warner Lewis offers a comprehensive description of the West African language of Yoruba as it has been used on the island of Trinidad in the southern Caribbean The study breaks new ground in addressing the experience of Africans in one locale of the Africa Diaspora and examines the nature of their social and linguistic heritage as it was successively retained modified and discarded in a European dominated island community Nineteenth Century Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature, 1890 T&T Clark Handbook of Theology and the Arts Stephen M. Garrett, Imogen Adkins, 2025-04-24 This volume presents the theology arts conversation from a distinctly Christian perspective as a witness of the Gospel of Christ to the world A widespread interest in the historical socio cultural and political embeddedness of theology and the arts permeates it This theme of embeddedness tracks through several overarching and interlocking concerns the relationship between form and content in both art and theology the intensification of the metaphysical and the theological contra materialist and positivist reductionisms the expansion of the epistemological possibilities of the theology art conversation and a robust understanding of the world as the theatre of God's glory Several chapters have been co written by theologians and artists as part of demonstrating the kind of conversation that this book commends A thorough going commitment to Scripture is also woven into the many different habits of thought represented in this volume Part I surveys different approaches to the theology arts conversation Part II focuses on how particular art forms bring theological issues to the surface and how theological and denominational traditions shape the making and receiving of the arts Part III delves into key topics in the current theology arts scene and asks how artistic and theological performance can both speak to theological and artistic knowing and help to celebrate and interrogate embodied lived reality
