(Social and Political Life)(Chapter - 2) (Understanding Secularism)

(Class - 8)

Question 1:

List the different types of religious practice that you find in your neighbourhood. This could be different forms of prayer, worship of different gods, sacred sites, different kinds of religious music and singing etc. Does this indicate freedom of religious practice?

Answer 1:

The different types of religious practices found in my neighborhood strongly indicate freedom of religious practice. The various forms of prayer, worship of different gods, sacred sites and different kinds of religious music found in my locality are of Christians, Muslims, Hindus, Sikhs, Jews and the Baha'is. The Christians sing hymns, the Hindus Bhajans, while the Muslims offers Namaaz five times a day. The Baha'is believe in world unity and peace.

Question 2:

Will the government intervene if some religious group says that their religion allows them to practise infanticide? Give reasons for your answer.

Answer 2:

The government in any democratic nation would intervene if some religious group says that their religion allows them to practice infanticide because this tradition goes against the Fundamental Right to Life. It involves the killing of an innocent and is, hence, unacceptable. The government, in this case, interferes by coercion. However, sometimes, the government may also intervene via support.

For example, Sikhs in Delhi are excused from wearing helmets on two-wheelers because their religion demands them to wear a turban-a sacred tradition for them.

Question 3:

Complete the following table:

Objective	Why is this important?	Example of a violation of this objective
One religious community does not dominate another.
The State does not enforce any particular religion nor take away the religious freedom of individuals.
That some members do not dominate other members of the same religious community.

Answer 3:

Objective	Why is this important?	Example of a violation of this objective
One religious community does not dominate another.	This is important to protect the Fundamental Right to Freedom of Religion	The demolition of the Babri Masjid in Ayodhya on 6th December, 1992 by Hindu nationalists.
The State does not enforce any particular religion nor take away the religious freedom of individuals.	This is important to uphold the ideals of a democratic nation which allows its citizens freedom to choose whichever religion they wish to follow.	France, in February 2004, banned headscarves and turbans in public places, thereby hurting the sentiments of Muslim and Sikh minorities.
That some members do not dominate other members of the same religious community.	This is necessary to uphold individual freedom in the light of pressure from a group or religious community that one belongs to.	The Christian community is divided into Protestants and Catholics; Irish Catholics are looked down upon and troubled by the officials of the Church of England who are predominantly Protestants.
