Sol Plaatjies University 2016 Forms:

Decolonising Curricula and Pedagogy in Higher Education Shannon Morreira, Kathy Luckett, Siseko H. Kumalo, Manjeet Ramgotra, 2021-05-31 This book brings together voices from the Global South and Global North to think through what it means in practice to decolonise contemporary higher education. Occasionally a theoretical concept arises in academic debate that cuts across individual disciplines. Such concepts which may well have already been in use and debated for some time become suddenly newly and increasingly important at a particular historical juncture. Right now debates around decolonisation are on the rise globally as we become increasingly aware that many of the old power imbalances brought into play by colonialism have not gone away in the present. The authors in this volume bring theories of decoloniality into conversation with the structural cultural institutional relational and personal logics of curriculum pedagogy and teaching practice. What is enabled in practice when academics set out to decolonize their teaching spaces? What commonalities and differences are there where academics set out to do so in universities across disparate political and geographical spaces? This book explores what is at stake when decolonial work is taken from the level of theory into actual practice. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Third World Thematics. Biodiversity Informatics: Building a

Lifeboat for High Functionality Data to Decision Pipeline Cang Hui, Nick Isaac, Quentin Groom, Vernon Visser, Sandra MacFadyen, 2024-03-06 Funds of Knowledge and Identity Pedagogies for Social Justice Moisés

Esteban-Guitart, 2023-07-21 This edited volume takes the US derived concept and praxis of funds of knowledge and applies it globally to critically analyse current education in line with social justice, antiracism and culturally sustaining pedagogies. Edited by one of the premier international voices for the funds of knowledge approach and in particular funds of identity theory, chapters foreground first hand participatory research practice experiences with learners, schools and local communities. These experiences demonstrate the positive social justice inspired pedagogical actions that result in and reveal powerful possibilities for a decolonialised antiracist praxis that aims to eradicate deficit thinking in education. Further, the inclusion of voices that are typically othered in the construction and distribution of academic knowledge make this a seminal volume in the field. Ultimately, the volume will be of interest to scholars, students and researchers working in the sociology of education, psychology of education and those specifically dealing with antiracism, decolonialism and equity within education.

Routledge Handbook of Pan-Africanism Reiland Rabaka, 2020-04-30 The Routledge Handbook of Pan Africanism provides an international intersectional and interdisciplinary overview of and approach to Pan Africanism, making an invaluable contribution to the ongoing evolution of Pan Africanism and demonstrating its continued significance in the 21st century. The handbook features expert introductions to and critical explorations of the most important historic and current subjects, theories and controversies of Pan Africanism and the evolution of black internationalism. Pan Africanism is explored and critically engaged from different disciplinary points of view, emphasizing the multiplicity of perspectives and foregrounding an intersectional approach The contributors provide erudite discussions of black internationalism black feminism African feminism and queer Pan Africanism alongside surveys of black nationalism black consciousness and Caribbean Pan Africanism Chapters on neo colonialism decolonization and Africanization give way to chapters on African social movements the African Union and the African Renaissance Pan African aesthetics are probed via literature and music illustrating the black internationalist impulse in myriad continental and diasporan artists work Including 36 chapters by acclaimed established and emerging scholars the handbook is organized into seven parts each centered around a comprehensive theme Intellectual origins historical evolution and radical politics of Pan Africanism Pan Africanist theories Pan Africanism in the African diaspora Pan Africanism in Africa Literary Pan Africanism Musical Pan Africanism The contemporary and continued relevance of Pan Africanism in the 21st century The Routledge Handbook of Pan Africanism is an indispensable source for scholars and students with research interests in continental and diasporan African history sociology politics economics and aesthetics It will also be a very valuable resource for those working in interdisciplinary fields such as African studies African American studies Caribbean studies decolonial studies postcolonial studies women and gender studies and queer studies African Migration, Human Rights and Literature Fareda Banda, 2020-12-24 This innovative book looks at the topic of migration through the prism of law and literature The author uses a rich mix of novels short stories literary realism human rights and comparative literature to explore the experiences of African migrants and asylum seekers The book is divided into two Part one is conceptual and focuses on art activism and the myriad ways in which people have sought to write justice Using Mazrui s diasporas of slavery and colonialism it then considers histories of migration across the centuries before honing in on the recent anti migration policies of western states Achiume is used to show how these histories of imposition and exploitation create a bond which bestows on Africans a status as co sovereigns of the First World through citizenship The many fictional examples of the schemes used to gain entry are set against the formal legal processes Attention is paid to life post arrival which for asylum seekers may include periods in detention The impact of the increased hostility of receiving states is examined in light of their human rights obligations Consideration is paid to how Africans navigate their post migration lives which includes reconciling themselves to status fracture taking on jobs for which they are over qualified while simultaneously dealing with the resentment borne of status threat on the part of the citizenry Part two moves from the general to consider the intersections of gender and status focusing on women LGBTI individuals and children Focusing on their human rights and the fictional literature chapter four looks at women who have been trafficked as well as domestic workers and hotel maids while chapter five is on LGBTI people whose legal and literary stories are only now being told The final substantive chapter considers the experiences of children who may arrive as unaccompanied minors Using a mixture of poetry and first person accounts the chapter examines the post arrival lives of children some of whom may be citizens but who are continually made to feel like outsiders The conclusion follows starting with two stories about walls by Hadero and Lanchester which are used to illustrate the themes discussed in the book Few African lawyers write about literature and few books and articles in Western law and literature look at books by or about Africans so a book that engages with both is long overdue This book provides fascinating reading for academics students of law literature gender and migration studies and indeed the general public Youth and Non-Violence in Africa's Fragile Contexts Akin Iwilade, Tarila Marclint Ebiede, 2022-10-22 This book makes an important contribution to the conflict literature and to new ways of thinking about agency and social life in fragile contexts It does this by engaging with often ignored peace infrastructures In this book the contributors highlight different ways in which non violence is deployed by Africa s youth to navigate difficult violent contexts Drawing on empirically grounded case studies from the Central African Republic to Zimbabwe this book explores how similar or indeed the same social infrastructures can be deployed for both violence and non violence and the important factors that drive many youth to take the non 1 violence option even when order appears to collapse around them The authors also explore how for instance systems of organizing survive violent disruptions to the so called rhythms of everyday life and when they do how they are then repurposed by youth to help them survive violence National Youth Development Agency Annual Report South Africa.
