Annotated Cases, American and English, 1908 American and English Annotated Cases, 1908 Lawyers' Reports Annotated, 1909 Consumer Protection and Online Auction Platforms Christine Riefa, 2016-03-03 Online auctions have undergone many transformations and continue to attract millions of customers worldwide. However, these popular platforms remain understudied by legal scholars and misunderstood by legislators. This book explores the legal classification of online auction sites across a range of countries in Europe. Including empirical studies conducted on 28 online auction websites in the UK, the research focusses on the protection of consumers' economic rights and highlights the shortcomings that the law struggles to control. With examinations into important developments including the Consumer Rights Directive and the latest case law from the CJEU on the liability of intermediaries, Riefa anticipates changes in the law and points out further changes that are needed to create a safe legal environment for consumers whilst preserving the varied business model adopted by online auction sites. The study provides insights into how technical measures as well as a tighter legislative framework or enforcement pattern could provide consumers with better protection in turn reinforcing trust and ultimately benefiting the online auction platforms themselves. American Publishers' Circular and Literary Gazette Charles R. Rode, 1870 New American Supplement to the Latest Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica, a Standard Work of Reference in Art, Literature, Science, History, Geography, Commerce, Biography, Discovery and Invention, 1897 Economics Essays Gerard Debreu, Wilhelm Neufeind, Walter Trockel, 2001-05-08 Back in the good old days on the fourth floor of the Altbau of Bonn's Juridicum, Werner Hildenbrand put an end to a debate about a festschrift in honor of an economist on the occasion of his turning 60 with a laconic 'Much too early'. Remembering his position five years ago, we did not dare to think about one for him. But now he has turned 65. If consulted, he would most likely still answer 'Much too early'. However, he has to take his official retirement, and we believe that this is the right moment for such an endeavor. No doubt, Werner Hildenbrand will not really retire. As professor emeritus, free from the constraints of a rigid teaching schedule and the burden of committee meetings, he will be able to indulge his passions. We expect him to pursue with undiminished enthusiasm his research, travel, golfing, the arts, and culinary pleasures, escaping real retirement.
