Soap Notes For Case Managers:

Teaching Activities for Social Work Jill M. Chonody, 2025-11-08 This textbook is a teaching and learning guide for social work education. Increasingly, instructors want to implement active learning strategies. With changes in our students from the wired Gen Z to nontraditional students, instructors are hungry for ways to engage students in the content and the classroom. Furthermore, as new educational standards from our discipline's governing body are being implemented across social work programs, faculty may be seeking additional content or be looking to make changes to how they teach their courses. This textbook addresses this need. Many PhD programs in social work do not include specific methods in their coursework; however, most graduates will go on to teach throughout their careers. New instructors as well as those who have been teaching for a while can use this book to help implement new activities and approaches that make learning fun and engaging. The contents of this text comprise detailed descriptions of different creative teaching and learning activities. Both in-class activities and assignments are provided. The book's 100 chapters are organized under 20 themed sections: I Photography II Art and Music III Mindfulness and Self Care IV Reflective Reading and Writing V Podcasts VI Artificial Intelligence VII Fun and Games VIII Professional Development IX Anti-Racist Teaching and Design Justice X Addressing Stereotyping and Bias XI Human Behavior and the Social Environment XII Theory XIII Engagement Assessment and Clinical Practice XIV Mezzo and Macro Practice XV Research Methods XVI LGBTQ Affirmative Practice XVII Reproductive Justice and Sexual Health XVIII Environmental Justice XIX International Connections and Cultural Awareness and XX Evaluating Teaching and Learning. Teaching Activities for Social Work: Creative Pedagogies to Engage Students can be used as a guidebook for current teachers and/or doctoral students. This text is intended to engage a diverse audience, including those who teach as an adjunct, doctoral students in social work, or those who hold a PhD and want to make shifts in their teaching methods or who teach courses on pedagogy.

Foundations for Community Health Workers Tim Berthold, Alma Avila, Jennifer Miller, 2009-08-13 Foundations for Community Health Workers is a training resource for client and community-centered public health practitioners with an emphasis on promoting health equality. Based on City College of San Francisco's CHW Certificate Program, it begins with an overview of the historic and political context informing the practice of community health workers. The second section of the book addresses core competencies for working with individual clients, such as behavior change counseling and case management, and practitioner development topics such as ethics, stress management, and conflict resolution. The book's final section covers skills for practice at the group and community levels, such as conducting health outreach and facilitating community organizing and advocacy. Praise for Foundations for Community Health Workers: This book is the first of its kind, a manual of core competencies and curricula for training community health workers. Covering topics from health inequalities to patient-centered counseling, this book is a tremendous resource for both scholars and practitioners in the field of community-based
