SPOOKY STORY READING COMPREHENSION

PASSAGE AND QUESTIONS WITH ANSWER

THE WHISPERING SHADOWS

On a chilly October night, as the wind howled through the pine trees of Willow Creek, the old Thompson house stood silent and dark. It was said to be haunted, especially on Halloween. The townspeople often told stories of legends whispered of shadows that moved on their own, voices that could be heard even when no one was there. Brenda and her friend Liam had heard these stories at their school, but they had never seen anything like it. One Halloween night, they decided to go outside to look. They had heard that the house was haunted, and they were determined to see if the stories were true. As they crept up the creaking stone steps, a strange feeling came over them. The door opened on its own, revealing a dark hall filled with shadows. Their flashlight beams pierced the dark as they walked, but the walls seemed to be watching them. In the daylight, they saw portraits on the walls of people and hollow eyes. As they walked further into the house, they heard whispers. At first, they thought it was just the wind howling, but then they heard voices, calling their names.

Suddenly, a shadow stepped across the hallway. Liam saw its face pale. "Did you see that?" he whispered. He knew Brenda could hear, but she had her back to him. They were not alone. A figure slowly emerged from the shadows, a woman in a long, tattered dress. Her face seemed to float above the ground. Her hair was long and dark, and she whispered in a voice that was not human. "You shouldn't be here," she murmured. "Leave... before it's too late." Brenda and Liam turned and ran, their flashlights flickering. When they reached the street, they looked back at the house one more time. No one was there, but they could still hear the whispers. And they never returned to the house again.
