Troubling The Line Trans And Genderqueer Poetry And Poetics:

Troubling the Line TC Tolbert, Trace Peterson, Tim Trace Peterson, 2013 The first ever collection of poetry by trans and genderqueer writers TROUBLING THE LINE: TRANS AND GENDERQUEER POETRY AND POETICS. T.C. Tolbert,

Since I moved in Trace Peterson, 2019 Poetry LGBTQIA Studies Introduction by Joy Ladin A new the voice too that knows how troubling it feels to be a voice to be nothing other than voice among readers and listeners who claim in that early 2000s way to hate voice because they cannot hear their own There is a Hartford in her heart no broken glass in it though the map is not the map and alongside it there lurks or flourishes an inability to be where I am This is a voice that sees that sees the boys at lavender the girls in show a voice of experiment a voice wearing your socks I recommend it to anyone like me and also to people who are nothing like me who want to know how it has been Stephanie Burt I will forever praise the day in 2010 when I discovered SINCE I MOVED IN at a friend s house and sat down and read it cover to cover Almost a decade later my skull still humming from a gift received The experience of recognition which is to say the benevolence of awareness which is different from the more distant more dangerous act of seeing being seen that transpired in the initial hours with this book altered the trajectory of my life in simple and extraordinary ways As Joy Ladin s introduction to the new edition makes clear SINCE I MOVED IN s 2007 publication was revolutionary and foundational for what would become a beautiful groundswell of trans and nonbinary poetry Even the boundaries were drawn up temporarily Trace tells us And how deeply true this is between so many so much of us on any given day Thank you Trace for this 2nd edition a kind of textual transition a gift to trans and nonbinary writers past present and future Here is The Pleasure of Arriving a poetry of integrity smart hilarious frustrated and tender TC Tolbert Gephyromania TC. Tolbert, 2014 Poetry LGBT Studies In GEPHYROMANIA literally an addiction to or an obsession with bridges Tolbert s choice isn t between female and male lover and self or loss and relief but rather to live willingly intentionally in the places where those binaries meet Questions arise Is a bridge simply an attempt to connect one seemingly stable body back to itself Whose body which embodiment is absent when we say I miss you And who is adored when we say I love Sensing the parallels between a lover who leaves and his own female body as it chooses as he chooses for it to recede the poems in GEPHYROMANIA explore the spaces between among across and even within bodies

A Companion to American Poetry Mary McAleer Balkun, Jeffrey Gray, Paul Jaussen, 2022-04-11 A COMPANION TO AMERICAN POETRY A Companion to American Poetry brings together original essays by both established scholars and emerging critical voices to explore the latest topics and debates in American poetry and its study Highlighting the diverse nature of poetic practice and scholarship this comprehensive volume addresses a broad range of individual poets movements genres and concepts from the seventeenth century to the present day Organized thematically the Companion s thirty seven chapters address a variety of emerging trends in American poetry providing historical context and new perspectives on topics such as poetics and identity poetry and the arts early and late experimentalisms poetry and the transcendent transnational poetics poetry of engagement poetry in cinema and popular music Queer and Trans poetics poetry and politics in the 21st century and African American Asian American Latinx and Indigenous poetics Both a nuanced survey of American poetry and a catalyst for future scholarship A Companion to American Poetry is essential reading for advanced undergraduate and graduate students academic researchers and scholars and general readers with interest in current trends in American poetry

How We Make Each Other Perry Zurn, 2024-12-06 Trans people have always lived in the cracks of institutions and the university is no exception In How We Make Each Other Perry Zurn tells the stories of how trans people make and live their lives at the edges of the university in ways that sometimes lead to policy change but always leave participants and institutions different than they were before Using the Five Colleges in Massachusetts as a case study Zurn notes that Amherst College Hampshire College Mount Holyoke College Smith College and the University of Massachusetts Amherst have been at the forefront of developing trans inclusive policies in higher education often in response to student organizing Zurn focuses on the stories of trans students staff faculty and community members within and alongside these institutions exploring how they have built themselves and each other Drawing on official archives as well as over 100 interviews Zurn shows how trans people in the Five Colleges have made history forged resistance habits and cultivated hope Postmodern Poetry and Queer Medievalisms: Time Mechanics David Hadbawnik, 2022-06-06 This volume builds on recent scholarship on contemporary poetry in relation to medieval literature focusing on postmodern poets who work with the medieval in a variety of ways Such recent projects invert or queer the usual transactional nature of engagements with older forms of literature in which readers are asked to exchange some small measure of bewilderment at archaic language or forms for a sense of having experienced a medieval text The poets under consideration in this volume demand that readers grapple with the ways in which we are still medieval in other words the ways in which the questions posed by their medieval source material still reverberate and hold relevance for today's world They do so by challenging the primacy of present over past toppling the categories of old and new and suggesting new interpretive frameworks for contemporary and medieval poetry alike

Transgender, Translation, Translingual Address Douglas Robinson, 2019-01-24 Finalist for the 2020 Prose Awards Language and Linguistics Category The emergence of transgender communities into the public eye over the past few decades has brought some new understanding but also renewed outbreaks of violent backlash In Transgender Translation Translingual Address Douglas Robinson seeks to understand the translational or translingual dialogues between cisgendered and transgendered people Drawing on a wide range of LGBT scholars philosophers sociologists sexologists and literary voices Robinson sets up cis trans dialogues on such issues as being born in the wrong body binary vs anti binary sex gender identities and the nature of transition and transformation Prominent voices in the book include Kate Bornstein C Jacob Hale and Sassafras Lowrey The theory of translation mobilized in the book is not the traditional equivalence based one but Callon and Latour's sociology of translation as speaking for someone else which grounds the study of translation in social pressures to conform to group norms In addition however Robinson translates a series of passages from Finnish trans novels into English and explores the translingual address that emerges when those English translations are put into dialogue with cis and trans scholars The Cambridge Companion to Twenty-First Century American Fiction Joshua Miller,2021-09-23

Reading lists course syllabi and prizes include the phrase 21st century American literature but no critical consensus exists regarding when the period began which works typify it how to conceptualize its aesthetic priorities and where its geographical boundaries lie Considerable criticism has been published on this extraordinary era but little programmatic analysis has assessed comprehensively the literary and critical theoretical output to help readers navigate the labyrinth of critical pathways In addition to ensuring broad coverage of many essential texts The Cambridge Companion to 21st Century American Fiction offers state of the field analyses of contemporary narrative studies that set the terms of current and future research and teaching Individual chapters illuminate critical engagements with emergent genres and concepts including flash fiction speculative fiction digital fiction alternative temporalities Afro futurism ecocriticism transgender queer studies anti carceral fiction precarity and post 9 11 fiction Trans Youth Stories Dr. Lindsay Herriot,Kate Fry,2021-08-19 The first of its kind Trans Youth Stories An Intergenerational Dialogue after the Trans Tipping Point is a thematically organized collection of narratives fiction nonfiction letters poetry graphics comics and visual pieces created by 26 Canadian transgender youth between the ages of 10 and 18 Arranged in sections on childhood families bodies everyday life schooling mental health and acceptance each section concludes with a response written by a Canadian scholar in transgender studies in conversation with the youth These responses contextualize the youth pieces with recent scholarship from the field and equip readers with concrete actions for research activism and professional practice Offering a unique and truthful depiction of young trans life and a holistic view of what it might be like to be a young trans person today this groundbreaking volume will serve as an essential sourcebook for both students and teachers of gender and sexuality studies trans studies child and youth studies counselling and education FEATURES A unique collection centering the voices of trans youth through firsthand perspectives followed by an extended scholarly response Includes additional resources and follow up responses by scholars to help readers contextualize writings of trans youth The SAGE Encyclopedia of Trans Studies Abbie E. Goldberg,Genny Beemyn,2021-03-15 Transgender studies broadly defined has become increasingly prominent as a field of study over the past several decades particularly in the last ten years The experiences and rights of trans people have also increasingly become the subject of news coverage such as the ability of trans people to access restrooms their participation in the military the issuing of driver s licenses that allow a third gender option the growing visibility of nonbinary trans teens the denial of gender affirming health care to trans youth and the media s misgendering of trans actors With more and more trans people being open about their gender identities doctors nurses psychologists social workers counselors educators higher education administrators student affairs personnel and others are increasingly working with trans individuals who are out But many professionals have little formal training or awareness of the life experiences and needs of the trans population This can seriously interfere with open communications between trans people and service providers and can negatively impact trans people's health outcomes and well being as well as interfere with their educational and career success and advancement Having an authoritative academic resource like The SAGE Encyclopedia of Trans Studies can go a long way toward correcting misconceptions and providing information that is otherwise not readily available This encyclopedia featuring more than 300 well researched articles takes an interdisciplinary and intersectional approach to trans studies Entries address a wide range of topics from broad concepts e g the criminal justice system activism mental health to specific subjects e g the trans pride flag the Informed Consent Model voice therapy to key historical figures events and organizations e g Lili Elbe the Stonewall Riots Black Lives Matter Entries focus on diverse lives identities and contexts including the experiences of trans people in different racial religious and sexual communities in the United States and the variety of ways that gender is expressed in other countries Among the fields of studies covered are psychology sociology history family studies K 12 and higher education law political science medicine economics literature popular culture the media and sports

ECODEVIANCE CAC Conrad, 2014-09-09 The Soma tic Exercises are innovative and crucial to our art form Conrad must be one of the most original practitioners of poetry forging new territory The Rumpus There was a time some of us believed poetry and poets could save the world CAC Conrad never stopped believing it The Huffington Post From M I A ESCALATOR The ultrasound machine gives the parents the ability to talk to the unborn by their gender taking the intersexed nine month conversation away from the child The opportunities limit us in our new world Encourage parents to not know encourage parents to allow anticipation on either end Escalators are a nice ride slowly rising and falling writing while riding notes for the poem meeting new people at either end Excuse me EXCUSE ME My escalator notes became a poem CAC Conrad's ECODEVIANCE contains twenty three new Soma tic writing exercises and their resulting poems in which he pushes his political and ecological efforts even further These exercises unorthodox steps in the writing process work to break the reader and writer out of the quotidian and into a more politically and physically aware present In performing these rituals CAC Conrad looks through a sharper lens and confirms the necessity of poetry and politics CAC Conrad is the author of several books of poetry and essays A 2014 Lannan Fellow a 2013 MacDowell Fellow and a 2011 Pew Fellow he also conducts workshops on Soma tic poetry and Ecopoetics America through Transgender Eyes J. E. Sumerau, Lain A.B. Mathers, 2019-04-01 America through Transgender Eyes provides an opportunity for readers to look at American society through the eyes of transgender people at a time when movements for and against transgender people permeate socio political discussions throughout the nation This book provides readers with important insights into the beauty and struggle of transgender people identities experiences and relationships As political religious and scientific traditions update their arguments in relation to growing recognition of transgender lives and histories America through Transgender Eyes offers an opportunity to visualize the way such traditions appear to some of the people often left out of them As political battles about the rights of transgender Americans grow throughout the nation this book provides an important introduction to this population for voters leaders activists and scholars seeking to make sense of the shifting gender dynamics of contemporary America The Epistolary Renaissance Maria Löschnigg, Rebekka Schuh, 2018-09-10 Since the late twentieth century letters in literature have seen a remarkable renaissance The prominence of letters in recent fiction is due in part to the rediscovery by contemporary writers of letters as an effective tool for rendering aspects of historicity liminality marginalization and the expression of subjectivity vis vis an other it is also due however to the artistically challenging inclusion of the new electronic media of communication into fiction While studies of epistolary fiction have so far concentrated on the eighteenth century and on thematic concerns this volume charts the epistolary renaissance in recent literature entering new territory by also focusing on the aesthetic implications of the epistolary mode In particular the essays in this volume illuminate the potential of the epistolary including digital forms for rendering contemporary sensitivities The volume thus offers a comprehensive assessment of letter narratives in contemporary literature Through its focus on the aesthetic and structural aspects of new epistolary fiction the inclusion of various narrative forms and the consideration of both conventional letters and their new digital kindred The Epistolary Renaissance offers novel insight into a multi faceted re new ed genre

The Problem of the Negro as a Problem for Gender Marquis Bey, 2020-12-08 A complex articulation of the ways blackness and nonnormative gender intersect and a deeper understanding of how subjectivities are formed A deep meditation on and expansion of the figure of the Negro and insurrectionary effects of the X as theorized by Nahum Chandler The Problem of the Negro as a Problem for Gender thinks through the problematizing effects of blackness as too a problematizing of gender Through the paraontological the between and the figure of the X with its explicit contemporary link to nonbinary and trans genders Marquis Bey presents a meditation on black feminism and gender nonnormativity Chandler s text serves as both an argumentative tool for rendering the radical alternative in and as blackness as well as demonstrating the necessarily trans gendered valences of that radical alternative Forerunners is a thought in process series of breakthrough digital works Written between fresh ideas and finished books Forerunners draws on scholarly work initiated in notable blogs social media conference plenaries journal articles and the synergy of academic exchange This is gray literature publishing where intense thinking change and speculation take place in scholarship

The Long Devotion Emily Pérez, Nancy Reddy, 2022-04-01 The Long Devotion is a collection of poems essays and writing prompts that celebrates motherhood and creates a space as poet Molly Spencer has written to tell an unlovely truth about family life and not have to take it back The poets in this book represent and describe a wide range of experiences They write about encountering the world anew through their children intersections of parenting and race single parenting adoptive foster and step parenting life with chronic illness mental illness and disability and the choice to remain childless The book is divided into four parts Difficulty Ambivalence and Joy considers the wonder and challenges of parenting including infertility pregnancy miscarriage and life with children and trying to write in the midst of those demands The Body and the Brain explores the cerebral and bodily labor of caregiving and writing In the World brings parents and their children into contact with the natural and political landscape Finally Transitions looks at how parenting and writing change as children grow up Poems range from linear narratives and imagistic lyric to poetry comics speculative futures and experimental forms Essays and poems suggest ways to write through the disruptions and chaos of family life Prompts invite readers to use the work in this book as a starting point for their own poetry As candid accounts of motherhood become more prevalent across literary pop culture and digital spaces the way we talk about writing and mothering is changing Poets have long challenged traditional motherhood narratives This book brings together a new generation of exciting and provocative voices for the first time

The Terrible We Cameron Awkward-Rich, 2022-08-08 In The Terrible We Cameron Awkward Rich thinks with the bad feelings and mad habits of thought that persist in both transphobic discourse and trans cultural production Observing that trans studies was founded on a split from and disavowal of madness illness and disability Awkward Rich argues for and models a trans criticism that works against this disavowal By tracing the coproduction of the categories of disabled and transgender in the United States at the turn of the twentieth century and analyzing transmasculine literature and theory by Eli Clare Elliott DeLine Dylan Scholinski and others Awkward Rich suggests that thinking with maladjustment might provide new perspectives on the impasses arising from the conflicted relationships among trans feminist and queer In so doing he demonstrates that rather than only impeding or confining trans life thought and creativity forms of maladjustment have also been and will continue to be central to their development Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award recipient
