Introduction and Key Issue 1: Where Are States Distributed? Pp 260-267

How has globalization both created connections and stimulated diversity around the world?

A state is

It occupies a defined territory on Earth's surface and contains a permanent population. A state has sovereignty, which means

List the 6 largest states in order:

On page 261, Rubenstein says, "Many of the microstates are islands, which explains both their small size and sovereignty." Elaborate more fully about this 'explanation'. What attributes (or, what is it about) islands have that make them likely to exist as microstates?

On the other hand, what attributes do islands have that would make existence as a microstate more challenging? Give three examples
