
AGR Training NCO Board Study Guide

What does ATRRS stand for and what does it do? - correct answer The Army Training Requirements and Resources System is the Army System of record for training. The online tool integrates manpower requirements for individual training. It establishes Army training requirements, determines training programs, manages class schedules, allocated class quotas, makes seat reservations and records student attendance. The system supports the planning, programming, budgeting and program execution phases of the training process.

ATRRS provides critical support for these three primary objectives: - correct answer 1. Centralization of training requirements and resources data

2. Management of input to training

3. Evaluation of program execution

Who is responsible for training soldiers? - correct answer As leaders it is our responsibility to train our subordinates. AR 600-20, Army Command policy states "The commander is responsible for training." While the commander is responsible for everything that happens or fails to happen, it is the noncommissioned officers that assist the commander in accomplishing the tasks put at hand.

What are the tasks NCO's are supposed to assist with? - correct answer - Transmitting, instilling, and ensuring the efficacy of the professional Army ethic.

-Planning and conducting the day-to-day unit operations within prescribed policies and directives

-Training of enlisted soldiers in their MOS's as well as the basic skills and attributes of a soldier

-Supervising unit physical fitness training and ensuring that unit soldiers comply with the weight and appearance standards of AR 600-9 and AR 670-1

-Teaching soldiers the history of the Army, to include military customs, courtesies and traditions.
