Model	Art Specific Example
General	Mr. Smith teaches 4 sections of 6th grade art and 2 sections of 7th grade art. He chooses to focus on his 6th grade students. He tracks 3 main concepts throughout the duration of his nine-week course. In this way, he assesses all of his students on the majority of the concepts he teaches.
General Tiered	Mr. Smith pre-tests all his students in 6th grade on 3 main concepts. Based on the results, he sorts the students into three, tiered groups. He sets a different goal for each group according to the baseline data. He tracks the students, assuming that they will achieve different results because they start at different levels of knowledge.
Specific - Student Group	Mr. Smith pre-tests his students and notices some of his special needs students are struggling with fine motor and cutting skills. He sets a student growth goal related to these skills for these students only. Throughout the nine-week course, he tracks only these students in this specific skill set.
Specific - Content/Skill	Mr. Smith pretests all his students in 6th grade on 3 main concepts. He notices that most students do not understand the concept of "value". He sets a student growth goal for all students that is focused on "value." Throughout the nine-week course, he tracks all students on this specific goal.

10 Models of Teacher Evaluation David Silverberg, Linda Jungwirth, 2014-02-04 For the first time, school districts around the country are being required to adopt formal accountability measures to assess teacher effectiveness. In a radical shift, teacher quality will be based on outputs: student achievement, teacher observations, rather than inputs: years of service, degrees attained. This change in school culture and practice is an attempt to improve everything from individual student learning to national economic competitiveness. It also requires that administrators implement new and rigorous teacher evaluation programs that align with state and federal guidelines. Busy administrators lack the training and experience necessary to quickly and efficiently craft a teacher evaluation system that successfully meets the needs of their district. Questions like "What is the best program for my district?" or "How do I get the teachers on board?" are being asked by school leaders across the country. This book provides real-world answers by highlighting 10 diverse model programs from around the country.
